This 28–31 July I'm helping the Sisters of Charity Foundation and The Salvation Army Australia Raise the Roof for survivors of modern slavery and human trafficking in Australia.

By donating the Australian hourly living wage of $27 I'm supporting survivors to set up their own home, giving them a chance to rebuild their lives and become independent.

General Awareness 1: Post anytime in July

There are around 41,000 people trapped in slavery in Australia right now. Even if they escape they are left in a desperate situation: Australian citizens may have no family or support networks to rely on, no money, no education and nowhere to live. The situation is worse for foreign nationals, who must navigate unfamiliar customs and bureaucracy and may not speak English.

This 28–31 July I'll be helping the Sisters of Charity Foundation and The Salvation Army Australia Raise the Roof for survivors of modern slavery and human trafficking in Australia.

Do you believe that everyone deserves to feel safe and have a place to call home? Visit sistersofcharityfoundation.org.au/raisetherooft.

Call to Action: Post in late July

$27 is the hourly living wage in Australia – the lowest hourly rate a person can live on. A living wage means you can do more than just cover everyday essentials and survive.

This 28–31 July I'm donating $27 to help the Sisters of Charity Foundation and The Salvation Army Australia Raise the Roof for survivors of modern slavery and human trafficking in Australia.

Donate your $27 at sistersofcharityfoundation.org.au/raisetherooft.
